108 Leonard launches sales

De Niro Team at Douglas Elliman Real Estate has launched 108 Leonard.

The Tribeca Clock Tower Building is a landmark Italian Renaissance Revival built in 1894 by architect McKim Mead & White.

Howard L. Zimmerman architects recently completed a facade restoration and design firm Jeffrey Beers International has transformed the building into 152 one-to-five bedroom residences.

Developed by Elad and the Peebles Corporation, amenities include a health club, pool, roof deck, lounge and on-site parking.

Prices begin at $1,535,000.
